On Oct. 2, the feast of the guardian angels, students at East Catholic High School in Manchester recognized their guardian angels here on earth by dedicating a new Marian grotto to the religious sisters who have served them as trusted mentors and guides.

Students and faculty at East Catholic honored the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur with a Mass and the dedication of a new Marian grotto at the high school: the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur Grotto.

"Seventy-one Sisters worked here over the years," Sean Brennan, chief administrator of East Catholic High School, told the crowd at the dedication ceremony. The Sisters, he said, served over the years as administrators, teachers and counselors.

With the motto "God is good all the time," the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur are still bringing their special charism to East Catholic High School, where they have been educating and shaping generations of students since the school's founding in 1961.

Sister Peggy Evans, who has been with the school 58 years and still works part time, came up with the idea for the grotto. "Sister Peggy wanted to honor her fellow Sisters," Brennan explained.

Brennan introduced Sister Peggy as "the soul of the school." Over the years, she worked as a religion teacher, Spanish teacher, vice principal and guidance counselor. Today, she assists with alumni relations.

EAST CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL DEDICATES NEW GROTTO TO NOTRE DAME SISTERS

"They always said 'East was best.' East was best because of the student body here," Sister Peggy told the students. "You rejuvenate me every day. The Sisters will tell you, I'm happy to wake up and come to work here every day."

The event opened with a Mass in the auditorium, celebrated by Father Daniel Hackenjos, the dean of religious life for Archdiocesan Catholic High Schools. Later, students processed to the grotto for the dedication ceremony.

As the Sisters, the entire student body, and archdiocesan officials looked on, Father Hackenjos blessed the new grotto along with the student choir members who performed at the event.

The focal point of the new grotto is a bronze statue of Mary holding the baby Jesus. Now mounted on the side wall of the school, the statue was rescued from the old Notre Dame convent, which existed on the school property until it was razed in 2021. Bricks taken from that same convent now form the lower walls of the grotto.

Completing the grotto are a concrete sidewalk, prayer benches, hot pink rose bushes, evergreen plantings, and a bronze plaque dedicating it to all the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur.

The dedication ceremony was followed by a lunch honoring the 14 Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur, who were present for the special tribute.

The previous day, members of East Catholic's boys basketball team, dressed in white shirts and black bowties, also served dinner at the Sisters' Jubilee celebration at St. Robert Bellarmine Church in Windsor Locks.

The Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur are an international congregation, founded in 1804 by St. Julie Billiart (1751-1816) in Amiens, France. Today, their Motherhouse is located in Namur, Belgium. Their Connecticut office is located in Windsor.

THE PASTOR'S CORNER

My friends, this year we are privilege to celebrate this weekend both the Solemnity of All Saints, where we remember all of the Saints in Heaven, especially those who are unknown to us; and All Souls, where we remember the faith departed of our family and friends, parish community, and throughout the world who await the entrance into, God-willing, the kingdom of Heaven. St. Paul says in his Second Letter to Timothy, "Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses." 'Fight the good fight of faith' is probably the best way I could describe the immense and magnificent chaos in celebrating these two Holy Days. The reason I say this is because the Saints- know and unknown-, along with the Angels, are the army of God interceding for us. The Saints are those who have lived either extraordinary or ordinary lives; some have been religious throughout their life, others have had a conversion to the Faith; some are Apostles, others are martyrs, some are pastors, others are virgins or religious, and still others are just ordinary men and women- married and unmarried, children, adults, and elderly, etc... who have been found by God to be welcomed into the Kingdom of Heaven and join the vast array of this magnificent army! These are the ones who have fought the good fight of faith and now they become our examples and role models to help us to get to the Kingdom of Heaven. They are the model 'bridge builders' that have underwent the challenges and difficulties in the chaotic world we live in, and now enjoy the splendor of God forever.

However, on the other hand, there are those who still await their chance to become a part of God's militant army- the souls in purgatory. These are the men and women, young and old, who "have gone before us and were marked with the sign of Faith." For them, it becomes our task and goal to pray for them. As we pray to the Saints for their intercession before God, so to do we now need to pray for those souls who await the Kingdom. They have fought the good fight of faith in the life we live now; and although we mourn their loss, we must rejoice because they are now being prepared by God to receive their reward and attain the great prize of victory. The letter to the Hebrews says, "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God." The cloud of witnesses- the Saints and our departed brothers and sisters- our examples and role models in this life who have fought the good fight and now await or already enjoy the victory of God in Heaven are there for us. May we pray for them and to them, in hopes that we will all join the array of God's army, and help persevere in fighting the good fight of faith in order for God's victory to be won on earth.
