St. Elizabeth of Hungary | Feast Day November 17

Although her life was short, St. Elizabeth of Hungary (1207 – 1231) is recognized for her love of the poor and suffering, and as patroness of Catholic charities and the Secular Franciscan Order. The daughter of the King of Hungary, she chose a life of penance instead of leisure, which made an impact on the "commoners" she served. After six years of marriage, her husband died in the Crusades, and St. Elizabeth was grief-stricken. Her husband's family did not look kindly upon her and mistreated her before finally throwing her out of the palace. However, the return of her husband's allies from the Crusades resulted in her being reinstated, since her son was legal heir to the throne. St. Elizabeth joined the Secular Franciscan Order in 1228 where she cared for the poor in a hospital she founded in honor of St. Francis of Assisi. She died in 1231, but her great popularity resulted in her being named a saint only four years later.

PILGRIMAGE SET TO HONOR PRIESTS, INCREASE VOCATIONS

On a June evening last year, Joanne and Ed Arrandale of St. Margaret Church in Madison joined thousands of pilgrims as they walked up a hill in Medjugorje for an apparition of the Blessed Mother on the 43rd anniversary of her first appearance to six young people in 1981. "I had this desire to be in the same place as the Blessed Mother was appearing," Joanne recalls. "I wanted to be where she was."

When Our Lady appeared, the visionaries fell to their knees, people stopped praying the rosary and silence descended on the hillside in Medjugorje, Bosnia and Herzegovina. "It was incredible," she says. "To be on this hill with thousands of people, and there was dead silence -- and you knew you were in the presence of the Blessed Mother."

Her anniversary message was: "Dear children, I rejoice with you and thank God for permitting me to be with you, to lead you and love you. Little children, peace is in danger and the family is under attack. I am calling you, little children, to return to prayer in the family. Put sacred Scripture in a visible place and read it every day. Love God, above all, that it may be good for you on Earth. Thank you for having responded to my call."

Our Lady of Medjugorje urges people to receive the Eucharist, pray the rosary, read the Bible, fast, and go to monthly confession. "In Medjugorje, you experience one of the most spiritual and peaceful places, where heaven touches Earth," Joanne says. "The idea came to me to bring others back to share it with them. The Blessed Mother wants us to spread what's happening there."

Inspired by her experience, the Arrandales are organizing a pilgrimage, where others can deepen their faith and pray for priests, seminarians and new vocations. A member of the Archdiocesan Vocations Ministry, she approached Father Anthony Federico, director of Vocations & Seminarians, with her idea and for his participation.

"I was really impressed when I heard Joanne was organizing a pilgrimage to Medjugorje, specifically to pray for priests of the Archdiocese of Hartford and new vocations to the priesthood," Father Federico says. "It means a lot to me to know there are folks who are deeply committed to this particular need of the Church, which of course has become so important to me in my current assignment."

The pilgrimage is scheduled for April 11 to 18, 2026. Among the planned activities, the group will celebrate daily Mass at St. James Church, climb Apparition Hill, and walk the Stations of the Cross to the summit of Cross Mountain, where a 28-foot cross commemorates Christ's crucifixion.

"I'm excited. I have never been there before but have heard such incredible testimonials from those who have, and I am eager to see it for myself," Father Federico says. "I am open to encountering and receiving what Our Lady has planned for me there and bringing the fruits of that back home to Hartford."

Joanne says the pilgrimage is dedicated to priests and seminarians because "they certainly deserve our prayers."

"I also want to put a smile on the faces of the Blessed Mother and Jesus and have them say, 'Yes, we'll take care of your priests,'" she adds. To learn more about the pilgrimage and apparitions in Medjugorje, call 203.318.8590 or email jarrandale@comcast.net. Registration for the trip should be done by Dec.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

Branches on the Vine

NOVEMBER 15 - 21, 2025

THE PASTOR'S CORNER

My friends, we continue in our series of homilies where we are unpacking the phrase "Fight the good fight of Faith" coming from St. Paul's letters. Where is this leading us you may ask? It is leading us to the end of the liturgical year where we will celebrate, next week in fact, the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. More on that to follow. In reflecting on the words of our readings today, the phrase from President Roosevelt comes to mind where he says, "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself." Truly extraordinary, especially as the United States was entering into the time of the Great Depression and the world was on the verge of World War II.

As we might have said before, fear paralyzes us and becomes an obstacle for us in completing our mission in life- no matter how small or big it is. We have thus far talked about the WHO and the HOW when it comes to "fighting the good fight of faith". This week we will look at the WHY? As we read in our First reading from the Prophet Malachi about the 'blazing fire' that will consume the proud and evildoers, we see this as a moment of triumph in the eyes of God and an anticipation of the coming of the "sun of justice"- Jesus Christ, who will come "with its healing rays" to restore humanities relationship with God. There are so many forces in the worlds where we experience a sense of fear, especially the fear of unknowing; and most of what causes that fear is the impact of the 'proud and evildoers' in our world- those who are against God and sanctity of human life. For many of us, however, we become deceived, to a certain extent, into believing the 'proud and evildoers' depending on how desirable their ways may seem which will then lead us down the path of sin and separate us, from "the love of Christ" as St. Paul says in his letters. However, Jesus warns us to not be deceived. He talks about in the Gospel about the stones of the temple and the offerings made being thrown down. He warns us "not to be deceived" from those who may seem to be 'our savior' but in reality they are 'proud and evildoers'. Rather, he speaks of war and insurrections and calls us to not be terrified. In order for the world to be purified, He himself must enter into the chaos that causes the division, in order for Him to establish the unity of all peoples into the arms of God. At the end of the Gospel, Jesus causes us to 'persevere'. Persevere in our own lives that we may not allow the 'proud and evildoers' to get a hold of us. Persevere through the fears that come about due to the uncertainties and troubles of the world. Persevere in order for our lives to be secure. Continue to the "fight the good fight of faith". It is easy for us to be deterred, and that is why we have the Sacrament of Confession- to restore what we had chosen to lose and desire to gain back by the death and resurrection of Christ. Persevere, and not only will the fight and battles be won, but we will enjoy the victory of the war won by Christ the King
